These amounts will not be debited to your GE CreditLine account until goods have been received or delivered

The minimum monthly payment will be set out in your monthly statement. Details of how this is calculated may be found in the Gem Visa Conditions of Use. Unless you have purchased goods on an installment plan advance, the minimum monthly payment is a variable amount. If you have purchased goods on a finance promotion other than an installment plan advance, making the minimum monthly payment will not be sufficient to repay the financed amount(s) within the promotional period.
